The John Steinbeck Map of America

THE JOHN STEINBECK MAP OF AMERICA

Ma said, "How in I gonna know 'bout you?"
I'll be all aroun' in the dark. I'll be ever'where — wherever you look. Wherever ther's a fight so hungry people can eat, I'll be there. Wherever they's a cop beatin' up a guy, I'll be there. I'll be in the way guys yell when they're mad an' — I'll be in the way kids laugh when they're hungry an' they know supper's ready, — why, I'll be there. See?"

THE GRAPES OF WRATH

John Steinbeck's enduring and passionate dramas about the human condition display his powerful conviction about our flaws, and a tender, loving belief in our continuing struggle for self-improvement. With such stories as GRAPES OF WRATH and IN DUBIOUS BATTLE, Steinbeck has helped to shape American social consciousness in the Twentieth Century.

We have designed THE JOHN STEINBECK MAP OF AMERICA around the popular images from his novels, as well as from his itinerary in TRAVELS WITH CHARLEY, which forms the external boundary of the map. The central section is comprised of detailed street maps of the towns of Salinas and Monterey, California, where Steinbeck himself lived and where he placed much of the drama in his fiction, notably, EAST OF EDEN, CANNERY ROW, TORTILLA FLAT, THE LONG VALLEY and SWEET THURSDAY.

Aaron Blake Publishers gratefully acknowledges the John Steinbeck Library in Salinas, California for their cooperation and encouragement; in particular we thank Pauline Pearson who has been so generous with her time and with her invaluable knowledge of John Steinbeck and his world.
